JANUARY 2019

Sketch Club - Mondays

The first rule of Sketch Club is, sketches don't have to be perfect... A light hearted, relaxed space to develop your drawing skills.

Proggy and Textiles - Mondays

Sally is back to show you what you can do with proggy, and will explore other textiles techniques as the weeks go on.

Computer Skills - Tuesdays

Yvonne is here to help you with your computer questions, from saving and printing to emails and basic Photoshop skills.

Stained Glass - Tuesdays

The multi-talented Steph is back to teach you how to shape, cut and solder glass. Create decorations, sculptures and ornaments in a friendly, relaxed environment.

Needle Felting - Wednesdays

A chance for members interested in needle felting to get together and practice in the studio.

Creative Writing Group - Wednesdays

Led by members, for members, this dedicated group of authors meet weekly to create poetry and short stories in a range of genres and topics.

Advanced Glazing Techniques - Thursdays

A course that will teach you how to go beyond pre-mixed, shop bought glazes and develop your own recipes and experiments. You must sign-up to attend this course, places are limited.

Ceramics Group - Thursdays

Thursday afternoons are the ideal time for members to get together and take over studio 3 for working with clay! Although no artist will be leading a workshop, other members are often happy to share skills and give you a helping hand. No booking needed, just drop in.

Time to Draw - Thursdays

Still life, figure drawings or working with your imagination, this is a time to get some help with your 2D work. No booking needed, just drop in.

Anonym Collage project - Fridays

Inspired by the work of Kurt Schwitters, this project begins with a visit to the Hatton Gallery and will end with an exhibition in the Bridge Gallery at Tynemouth Station at the end of March. You must sign-up to attend this course, places are limited.

Friday Social - Fridays

A chance to sit back, relax and take a break from all the creative work of the week. Tea, cake, board games and chat are heavily encouraged – please come along and say hi.

Knitting and Crochet - Fridays

A chance for beginners and experienced knitters and crocheters to get together and share their skills.

Ceramics from the ground up - Saturdays

Our very own Graeme provides a great workshop for beginners to learn how to get started with clay.
