March 2019

Sketch Club

A light hearted, relaxed space to develop your drawing skills and learn good habits for sketching and journaling.

Proggy and Textiles

Sally is back to show you what you can do with proggy, and will explore other textiles techniques as the weeks go on.

Computer Skills

Yvonne is here to help you with your computer questions, from saving and printing to emails and basic Photoshop skills.

Stained Glass

The multi-talented Steph is back to teach you how to shape, cut and solder glass. Create decorations, sculptures and ornaments in a friendly, relaxed environment.

Needle Felting A chance for members interested in needle felting to get together and practice in the studio.

Creative Writing Group

Led by members, for members, this dedicated group of authors meet weekly to create poetry and short stories in a range of genres and topics.

Ceramics Group

Thursday afternoons are the ideal time for members to get together and take over studio 3 for working with clay!

Although no artist will be leading a workshop, other members are often happy to share skills and give you a helping hand.

Time to Draw

Still life, figure drawings or working with your imagination, this is a time to get some help with your 2D work.

Working to a Brief

Learn a technique for how to expand and explore your own creative response to a set topic.

Friday Social

A chance to sit back, relax and take a break from all the creative work of the week.

Knitting and Crochet

A chance for beginners and experienced knitters and crocheters to get together and share their skills.

Ceramics from the ground up

Our very own Graeme provides a great workshop for beginners to learn how to get started with clay.
