

What's New?

New Studio Layout!

After more than a month of very hard work our studio has a new look , with more space to work, better access to materials, and a freshly sealed floor! We will be running daily, brief, induction sessions for all members, so that you can get to know where everything can be found. Thank you to all the fantastic members who have volunteered their time to help with these changes—you have been amazing!

Personal and Professional Development Programme

The PPD programme will challenge and support up to 8 members to develop their artistic practice and use of art as a tool to improve their mental health, by undertaking a series of projects and workshops over 9 months. If you would be interested in this programme, please let a member of staff know by the 15th of September.

Art Journaling with Fiona Fitzpatrick

We are excited to announce a new workshop running on Tuesdays that will be lead by an experienced Arts Therapist. This will not be a formal therapy session, but will t he opportunity to express emotions creatively and via group discussion each week if you feel comfortable. Please come along to Fiona's first session on the 10th to find out more.

What's the Story—Art and Writing with Jo Clement

Creative Writing will be heading in a new direction with a brand new workshop lead by the award winning writer Dr Jo Clement. This workshop will explore the relationship between visual art and creative writing, in a friendly, welcoming atmosphere and is the perfect opportunity to try your hand at creating art with words.
